ATTRACTIONS

Experience Museum of New Zealand

Te Papa Tongarewa: Located right on Wellington's beautiful waterfront is Te Papa, New Zealand's national museum and art gallery. It is free to visit and open every day from 10am - 6pm.

Ride the Wellington Cable Car: From Lambton Quay, take a ride on the Cable Car for panoramic views over the city, then stroll back into town through the Botanic Gardens.

Visit Zealandia ecosanctuary:

A world-first conservation attraction just 10 minutes' drive from the city centre.

Explore our universe: Māori mythology meets big bang science at Space Place at Carter Observatory.

Take a tour: Food, film-making or wildlife - let a passionate local show you their Wellington. Book at the i-SITE Visitor Information Centre on Wakefield Street.

DINING

Café culture: Wellington is world famous for its coffee, with some cafés even roasting their own beans.

The craft of beer-making: Sample locally-brewed brew at one of our inner-city brew bars - Ghuznee Street and upper Cuba Street are craft beer hotspots.

Culinary capital: Explore Courtenay Place, Cuba Street and Hannahs Laneway, Lombard Lane and Ghuznee Street for delicious eateries and foodie delights.

SHOPPING

Cuba Street: For quirky boutiques and high-quality vintage stores.

Ghuznee Street: For cutting-edge curated clothing and homewares.

Wakefield and Victoria Street: For clothing by local and New Zealand designers.

College and Jessie Street: For ethical fashion, Asian homewares and haute couture.

Lambton Quay: Great high street and department store shopping.

Souvenirs and gifts: Head to the Te Papa Store and Allen Street for NZ-made souvenirs and homewares.
